Campaign Finance Legal Requirements

State law requires political parties to report the name and mailing address for each individual whose contributions are $20 or more per calendar year. Occupation and name of employer is also required when contributions are $100 or more in a calendar year. The value of your donation is not tax-deductible as a charitable contribution for federal income tax purposes. We cannot accept donations from corporations or unions.

Name of Employer: _____

Occupation: _____ Not employed

Legal Compliance

By checking this box, I confirm that the following statements are true and accurate:

- I am not a foreign national who lacks permanent residence in the United States.
- I am not a Federal government contractor.
- This contribution is made from my own funds, and not those of another.
- This contribution is not made from the funds of a corporation or labor organization.
- This contribution is made on a personal credit card or debit card for which I have the legal obligation to pay
- This contribution is not made either on a corporate or business entity card, or on the card of another person.
- I am at least eighteen years old.

Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, address, occupation and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 per election cycle.

Contributions are limited to $2500 per individual per election. The primary and general elections are separate elections, so individuals may give up to a total of $5000 for both elections.

Please print this form and send it with your check, payable to Montrose County Democratic Party.
